

PITCH PRO

Anchor

The Pitch Pro is a premium fall protection anchor designed for sloped-roof asphalt shingle construction. It is the perfect solution for both new and existing construction, and its low-profile installation makes it an excellent choice for finished rooftops. The oversized connection point makes attaching and detaching easy and bind-free.

Made from robust powder-coated steel, the Pitch Pro resists damage from repeated installations, and ensures the longest possible lifespan.

HEIGHT SAFETY.
SIMPLIFIED.

guardianfall.com

PITCH PRO

Anchor

Key Features & Benefits

Offset fastener holes

Minimizes risk of splitting trusses

Powder-coated steel

Superior durability & strength

Connection point

Easy and secure connection point

Lightweight & durable

Easy to install

Available in three colors

Black, brown, & grey

Specifications

User weight range | 130-420 lbs

Materials | Powder-coated steel

Minimum breaking strength | 5,000 lbs

Substrates | Wood, metal, & concrete

Part numbers	Description	User weight range
10540	Single pack - black	130-420 lbs
10541	Single pack - brown	130-420 lbs
10542	Single pack - grey	130-420 lbs
10543	25 pack - black	130-420 lbs
10544	25 pack - brown	130-420 lbs
10545	25 pack - grey	130-420 lbs

Declaration of conformity

This product has been tested in an ISO 17025 certified laboratory in accordance with all requirements specified by ANSI Z359.7-2019. All testing is validated by a third party professional engineer.

This product is compliant with the following safety regulations:

ANSI Z359.18-2017 | OSHA 1910.140 & 1926.502

For more information:

+1 (800) 466 6385

info@guardianfall.com

Designed, tested, and assembled in the United States